

Syllabus

Admission process into M.Sc / M.A in Digital Society comprise of two criteria (1) Entrance Examination (75%) and Interview (25%)

The Entrance examination will test the followings:

- a) Numerical/quantitative Abilities
- b) Analytical Abilities
- c) Verbal Abilities,
- d) Design Awareness
- e) Current Social, Political and Economic Awareness and
- f) Information Technology and Computer Awareness.

In the Interview, candidates may be asked to present their interests for the Programme, Career objectives, and other academic questions to judge their suitability into the Programme. Group Discussion method may be organized during the interview process.